COMPTROLLER PREPARING A QUARTERLY REPORT.

Statement of City's Financial Affairs to Be Made Four Times a Year.

Comptroller Player is working on a quarterly report to be submitted to the Municipal Assembly, which is being prepared for the purpose of informing the city's legislators and the public the exact status of the city's financial affairs in all of its institutions.

Heretofore it has been customary to nake reports only at the close of the fiscal year. Under the new departure the roller believes the city fathers can a touch with expenditures and will be placed in a position to make sug-is for improvement in all departments.

The report will contain a detailed statement of the cost per capita of food of all kinds for inmates of the various institutions. A copy of the cost per the previous three months will accompany the quarterly report, see that a comparison can be made and reasons given for increases or decreases in the cost of maintenance.

Telix E. Gunn, the City Statistician, will make a tour of the city shortly to institute a uniform method of keeping accounts to facilitate the accomplishment of the new plan.

Satisfactorily and at moderate cost.

TWO THOUSAND SCHOOL CHILDREN ENJOY OUTING.

Marvel at Spectacle at Delmar Garden-Teachers Marshal Them.

Two thousand boys and girls, big and little, white and black, bare-footed and well shod, dirty, clean, tidy and unkempt, romped and played in Delmar Garden yesterday, marveled at the spectacle, "Louisiana," and enjoyed themselves thorough ly as the guests of the garden manage ment, under the direction of their teachers, the corps of women who constitute the St. Louis Vacation Playground Association.

It was just an ordinary outing of the association to the women, but to the boys and girls it was an affair extraordinary. To ride free on the Suburban and Transit cars; to see the big show at Delmar Garden; to enjoy the recreation of trying the various amusaments at the garden, and last, but not least, to eat real cake and drink good, iccold lemonade, was unexpected, unhoped-for joy.

And the children showed it. They stood attentively through the performance of "Louisiana," and laughed heartly at jokes of which they hardly knew the point. The many colors pleased them and the display of each of the various national colors in the last act provoked some applause from them, for the boys and girls were from them, for the boys and girls were from them for the sons derable portion of the membership.

The boys did make some mistakes. They the St. Louis Vacation Playground As-element is considerable portion of the membership.

The boys did make some mistakes. They started to sing "America," when the orchestra played "God Save the Queen," but the sight of the British flag and the dapper, red-coated chorus girls soon guieted their childish voices to an inaudible murmur and then to absolute silence. At the close of the spectacle they all joined justily in "My Country, "Tis of Thee," and were shouting and singing when they left the paylilon.

Mrs. John A. Greene is the president of the St. Louis Vacation Playground Association and she, with a corps of twenty young men and women, marshaled the great crowd of children. The day was an enjoyable one with only stubbed toes and other insignificant accidents to mar its success.

Street Commissioner Invokes Aid of the Police.

Street Commissioner Varrelman sked the aid of the police in clearing the streets of fruit vender stands, which were ordered removed from sidewalks about the city by Mayor Wells several days ago. Street Commissioner Varrelman's assistants have been notifying street merchants to vacate for several days, but the Street Department orders don't seem to have the effect that orders from Police Headomarters have.

Street Department orders don't seem to have the effect that orders from Police Headquarters have.

Fruit merchants along Third street are protesting bitterly because stands that do not extend eighteen inches over the sidewalk have also been ordered cleared away. The ordinances provide that a stand not exceeding eighteen inches over the pavement can be maintained.

ARREST FOLLOWS RELEASE ON BOND

Informations Will Be Filed To-Day Charging James W. Sells With Three Offenses.

Assistant Circuit Attorney Hancock anounced yesterday that he will file informations to-day charging James S. Sells of No. 1522 Hamilton avenue with obfain-ing money under false pretenses, forgery and attempting to obtain money under false pretenses.

Sells was arraigned before the Court of Criminal Correction last week on charges of obtaining money under false pretense and bound over to the Grand Jury. He was then released on bond, but was again arrested on the complaint of William H. Loocer of No. 2624 Thomas street, who charges him with attempting to borrow $100 from him under false representations. $100 from him under false representations. The plan of Sells, it is said, was to borrow sums of money from various persons and offer fabulous honuses for the loan. Thus, if he borrowed $100 he gave, it is said, a $25 bonus. If he borrowed $20, it is said, he gave a bonus of $10. In addition to giving fabulous bonuses, it is alleged that he gave as security for the loans certificates of stock in the A. R. Sells Realty Investment Company. The certificates of stock, if the one in the possession of Assistant Circuit Attorney Hancock is typical, state that the capitalization of the company is $10,000. The fraudulent dealing in the transaction, it is said, is the fact that the A. R. Sells Realty Investment Company is not in existence.

The informations drawn up vesterday.

Resity Investment Company is not in existence.

The informations drawn up yesterday, which will be filed to-day, obviate the necessity for Grand Jury action, will charge Sells with fraudulently obtaining money from Fannie Ryburn, a former employe in the Federal building; from George Angermueller of No. 1224 North Taylor avenue, and from C. L. Schumacher of No. 1438 Dolman street. He will also be charged with forging the name of W. Henry Sisson, a name which appeared on some of the certificates of stock, it is said. Another information will charge him with attempting to obtain money under false pretenses from William Loocer.

From Fannie Ryburn, it is said, Sells succeeded in borrowing 3109; from George Angermueller, $100, and from C. L. Schumacher, $80.

COUNTY COURT DRAWS SPECIAL GRAND JURY PANEL

Gambling-Crusade Starts Political Movement.

A panel for the special Grand Jury to avestigate gambling in St. Louis County was drawn yesterday by the County Court in Clayton. Summonses for the jurors were turned over to Sheriff Hencken for pervice and they will be notified to-day. The jury will meet at Clayton August 8. It will consist of three members from Ponhomme Township, two from Caronde-

Bonhomme Township, two from Caronde-let, three from Central, two from Mera-mec and two from St. Ferdinand.

The jurors from Bonhomme are August Heege, Oscar Linss and Louis Rott; Ca-rondelet, Peter Frederitzi and Clinton Hu-ber; Central, S. V. Wise, E. J. Wilke and Paul D. Cable; Meramec, W. H. Maupin and H. J. Mincke; St. Ferdinand, C. C. Branneskey and Barney Herbst. Huber is a traveling st.lesman, Wilke a banker and Cable a corporation promoter. The rest of the jurors are farmers and fruit growers. growers.
The gambling games in the county have the jury to do outside of making recommendations.

One of the results of the antigambling crusade is a movement for the nomination of an independent Republican county ticket. As far az known only two names have been settled apon by the slatemakers, provided the deal goes through. The names are those of R. Lee Mudd for Prosecuting Attorney and Louis Strothkamp for Collector. The Democrats have been asked to support the ticket on a fusion basis, and the invitation will probably be accepted, although some of the old-timers, like Steve J. Harris of Kirkwood, favor the nomination of a straight Democratic licket.
